Palmer for President

What Mitchell Palmer Does With Profiteers and Hoarders

"If I have my way about it, we shall start on the road to the penitentiary every man in every community throughout the country who is taking advantage of our distress as a nation to gouge our people out of unreasonable profits on the necessities of life."

HERE is how Mitchell Palmer, as Attorney General, tackles the food problem. Here is what he has done and is doing to keep food profiteers, hoarders and speculators from selicine imaginable, when Kirk's 'gouging the people out of unreasonable profits on the necessities of life":

Profiteers

He arrests, prosecutes and sends them to jail.

Hoarders:

He seizes and forces on the market at reasonable prices food stocks held by speculators.

Fair Prices:

He promotes the formation of Fair Prices Commissions in all States.

Packers:

He prosecutes the Beef Trust, making it get out of the relail meat business and the wholesale and retail grocery business, breaking its rapidly growing monopoly on food products, and at the same time cutting its cincle on buying prices for cattle and selling prices for meat.

The Department of Justice, of which Palmer, as At torney General, is chief, has made 1,299 arrests on profiteer. ing charges, and is still making them. There have been 350 indictments already. Eighty-five profiteers have been convicted, 30 going to jail and the rest paying fines that disourage further price-gouging.

Sugar prosecutions under the Lever act total 236, all but 10 under the profiteering section. Clothing-cases number 25; fuel, 20; meat, 27; flour, 3.

HERE is what Mitchell Palmer did in handling other problems which have come before his department:

He ended the coal strike in behalf of the public. The coal strike would have starved and frozen the people by a tie-up of fuel and transportation.

Red Movement:

He deported Red anarchist agitators, whose purpose is to cause a general revolution and starve the country into submission to a soviet government modeled after the Lenine-Trotzky tyranny in Russia.

HERE is what Mitchell Palmer did as Alien Property ustodian. He took over more than $800,000,000.00 of ENEMY PROPERTY and used it to HELP AMERICA WIN THE WAR. He became the largest trust officer in the world and administered his trust at a cost of oneseventh of one per cent to the government. As a business executive his record is without parallel.
